Aim : To demonstrate how to integrate icons, images and fonts into a flutter-based crime tracking app, enhancing its functionality and user interface Theory : Icons : used to represent actions such as crime reporting or accessing details of a specific incident. Flutter provides built-in Icons or custom cones can be added to enhance navigation a] Example : In a IMDB clone app icon can represent various actions line reporting a crime

• Images : Important for crime scene photos, suspect Images, or incident report
• Fonts : custom-fonts help make the app more readable and distinguished various sections like crime details, notification or tips flutter allow integration of custom fonts for a unique App style

Conclusion : Icon's image and fonts are key components for a well designed crime tracking app by leveraging flutter's tools developers can creates on efficient, visually engaging and information app that enhances the uses experience of support effective crime tracking.

Edit Profile

Account

Watchlist

Favourites

Sign Out